ADVANCED (C1) LEVEL

Director of Studies

	LEVEL	DESCRIPTION
PROFICIENT USER	C2 (Proficient)	Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarize information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. Can express themselves with precision, subtlety, and nuance in complex situations, demonstrating a high level of language proficiency.
	C1 (Advanced)	Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning. Can express themselves fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic, and professional purposes.
INDEPENDENT USER	B2 (Upper-Intermediate)	Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers comfortable. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain viewpoints on topical issues.
	B1 (Intermediate)	Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters. Can produce simple connected text on topics that are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences, events, dreams, and ambitions, and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
BASIC USER	A2 (Pre-Intermediate)	Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a direct exchange of information. Can describe aspects of their background, immediate environment, and matters of immediate need. Can participate in short conversations and express basic opinions on familiar topics.
	A1 (Elementary)	Can introduce themselves and others, and can ask and answer basic questions about personal details. Can handle simple, routine tasks such as ordering food, giving and following simple instructions. Can engage in basic social conversations about topics like hobbies, family, and daily activities.
	Pre-A1 (Beginner)	Can understand and use basic greetings, farewells, and expressions of courtesy. Able to provide simple personal information such as name, nationality, and age. Recognizes and responds to common everyday phrases and questions.
